Reading Directions:

___ Choose an article to read (_____) and a person you think would like to learn about the topic (_____).

___ Write a list of what you already know about the topic.

___ Write three questions you think the article will answer for you.

___ Read and highlight the main ideas. Stop after each paragraph to take notes (what the text says/what I think about it).

___ Stop after reading each section and write a 20-25 word gist statement.

___ When finished reading and taking notes, re-read all gist statements and write a 20-25 word gist statement covering the entire article.
